

Furman Paladins (11-2, 5-0 SoCon) vs. Davidson Wildcats (8-4-1, 5-0 SoCon)

FURMAN SOCCER GAME NOTES

The Furman women's soccer team is having its best season in history and has posted a strong 11-2 record. Furman is ranked 8th in the Southeast Region in both the NSCAA and Soccer Buzz regional polls. Furman has been ranked in the region's top ten for the entire season.

Today's match-up is a battle of the only two remaining unbeaten teams in the Southern Conference.

Furman notched two wins last week to improve to 5-0 in the Southern Conference. The Lady Paladins defeated Wofford 3-2 in overtime last Tuesday on the strength of two Melissa Turner goals. Friday, The Lady Paladins scored eight second half goals to defeat Chattanooga 8-0. After a scoreless first half, Melissa Sutton and Melissa Turner brought Furman to life as each scored hat tricks. Michelle Muro also produced, adding a goal and an assist, while Lindsey Facciolo scored one goal. Furman's midfield produced a number of assists once again as Katie Carson registered three assists, while Sarah Tollick and Kaye Brownlee each had two assists on the night.

Melissa Turner earned Southern Conference player-of-the-week honors for her five goal performance last week.

Brownlee, Furman's all-time leader in assists, and Carson both rank in the nation's top ten in assists per match. Brownlee and Carson also lead the Southern Conference in assists.

Furman now turns it's attention to the Southern Conference race and its mission to claim the SoCon regular season title. The Lady Paladins' next four matches are all against Southern Conference teams.

Series Record: Furman leads the all-time series 5-3-2 over the Davidson. Last season, Furman downed the Wildcats 2-1 in Davidson.

Next Match: Furman will travel to Georgia Southern for a 4 p.m. match on Friday. Furman returns home to host Appalachian State and East Tennessee State next week.
