A nonrefundable deposit of $600 toward the total cost of approximately $6700 is due in the Student Business Center by May 30, 2009. The exact cost of the program will be available by September 1, 2009.

If you decide not to participate in the program you must notify Dr. Worthen in writing before September 1, 2009.

An interim payment of $3000 is due on September 15, 2009 in order to cover expenses of prepaid airline tickets, and hotel and other required deposits.

Final payment for the program will be due January 31, 2010. If you decide not to participate in the program after October 15, 2009, the amount of the refund will be governed by monies recovered from prepaid airline tickets, from prepaid services abroad, and any recoverable fixed expenses. The refund might be zero. Any monies paid in advance will be deducted from the total cost.

The total program cost will include coverage under the Furman - Cultural Insurance Services International study away insurance policy during the period of program travel. This policy covers medical, evacuation and repatriation costs; the policy statement and claims form will be distributed to the student before program travel. If you plan to travel before or after the group, you may contact the Office for Study Away and International Education to learn about extending the coverage to include your dates of travel. Should you desire additional types of insurance, such as trip cancellation insurance, this responsibility falls to the student.
